Vudor
Ventilating Porch Shades

YOU are always on the shady side of the street when your porch is equipped with VUDOR VENTILATING PORCH SHADES.

They make it habitable all day long and as cool and secluded as the heart of the woods.

Even if your porch is close by the street, you can lounge about in negligence—no one can see you.

There is a VENTILATOR woven in the top of each Vudor Porch Shade which gives free circulation of air. The Self-Hanging Device permits anyone unaided to hang a shade in five minutes.

There is a size to fit your porch and a color to harmonize with your house.

HAWKER, GRIEVE ARE DECORATED

Get Insignia of Air Force Cross from King George

"DEVOTION TO DUTY" REASON ASCRIBED

Immense Crowd Acclaimed Aviators Before Buckingham Palace

London, May 28.—Harry G. Hawker and Lieutenant Commander Mackenzie Grieve, who reached here yesterday from Thurso, Scotland, after being rescued in mid-ocean when their airplane, in which they were attempting to cross the Atlantic, alighted near the Danish steamer Mary, were received by King George at Buckingham palace this morning.

King George bestowed on them the insignia of the air force cross. They are the first actual recipients of this order, which is bestowed for "devotion to duty."

An immense crowd gathered in front of Buckingham palace to witness the arrival of Hawker and Grieve, who were loudly cheered when they made their appearance. The crowd also gave them an ovation when they left the palace.

HAWKER HAD USED ONLY HALF OF FUEL

When His Plane Alighted in the Sea Near the Danish Tramp Steamer Mary.

London, Tuesday, May 27.—The Sopwith airplane driven by Harry G. Hawker on his unsuccessful attempt to fly across the Atlantic started from St. Johns with a gasoline supply of 340 gallons. Half this amount had been used when the airplane alighted in the sea near the Danish tramp steamer Mary.

In talking of the voyage, Lieutenant Commander Grieve said to-day that, in his opinion, the future of aerial navigation lies in the perfection of wireless equipment for airplanes, by which the machine may be guided.

REPUBLICANS VOTED SOLIDLY.

When Committee Assignments Were Reported To-day.

Washington, D. C., May 28.—Republican committee assignments as agreed upon at the recent party conference, were presented to the Senate to-day by Republican Leader Lodge. Efforts of the progressives, led by Senator Borah of Idaho, to supplant Senators Penrose, Pennsylvania and Warren, Wyoming, as chairmen of the finance and appropriations committees, respectively, having been defeated at a final conference yesterday, a solid vote of the majority upheld the committee appointments.

Opposition by the Democrats to the Republican plan of voting for the committee nominations en masse, was expected to delay the proceedings, as leaders of the minority had announced their intention of demanding separate votes on the chairmanships. This was intended to force the progressives to record themselves as to Senators Penrose and Warren.

NORTHFIELD

Miss Mabel M. Edwards Bride of Lieut. F. C. Dunham.

The marriage of Lieut. F. C. Dunham, U. S. N., and Miss Mabel Moore Edwards of this town took place in Burlington Saturday. They left directly for New York City, and from there will go to Philadelphia, where Lieut. Dunham is stationed at present. Mrs. Dunham attended the Barre schools and later graduated from the Johnson Normal school, and for the past few years has been a very efficient teacher in the Northfield graded school, a position she resigned only recently. Lieut. Dunham is a graduate of Norwich university in the class of 1914, and following graduation, he was employed in the Northfield Savings bank, resigning the position to enlist at the time of the Mexican border trouble. He organized the 1st Vt. regiment, and band at Fort Ethan Allen, which ended federal service in April, 1917, and afterwards became the band of the 57th Pioneer regiment. Lieut. Dunham is in the pay corps of the U. S. N.

Rev. J. A. Lynch delivered the Memorial sermon in St. John's church Sunday afternoon. There were 14 members of the Grand Army present. The choir furnished appropriate music and Father Lynch preached a very able sermon.

Rev. James B. Sargent was in Rochester over Sunday and conducted a Memorial service in the Congregational church.

The funeral of James Cook, an old resident of Northfield, was held Monday morning from his home near the Barlow bridge. The deceased was 73 years old and had been suffering with heart trouble for some time, but the immediate cause of death was a shock. He is survived by his wife, two sons, J. Wilbur of Stamford, Conn., and John of Montpelier. Their only daughter, Emma, wife of Dean Hill of Boston, formerly of Philadelphia, died about six months ago.

Rev. W. T. Sparhawk of Randolph is to deliver the Memorial day address in Sharon.

DICTATED PEACE, BROKEN PLEDGE

That Is Basis of the German Counter-Proposal to Peace Terms

INSIST ON RIGHT TO WILSON'S POINTS

Complaint Made That Germany's Change of Government Is Ignored

Berlin, Tuesday, May 27 (By the Associated Press).—The German counter proposals to the terms of the treaty of peace will in the opening section argue for the existence of Germany's contractual right to a peace based on President Wilson's 14 points, because the entente nations agreed to a peace on that basis and neither Mr. Wilson nor the representatives of any other allied government have since demanded that peace be established on any other basis. Thus, it is argued, an abandonment of the 14 points by the entente would be a breach of a legal agreement, and a dictated peace would be a breach of a given promise.

The second section will deal with the contradiction between the draft of the treaty and previous assurances from entente statements and the general ideal of international right.

The counter proposals will declare that the terms of peace completely ignore the fact that Germany has replaced an "imperialistic and irresponsible government" by a strictly democratic one and that Germany in her proposals for a league of nations has adhered to the principle of a limitation of armaments.

"It would be difficult to see," one section reads, "what different conditions could have been imposed upon an imperialistic government. The solemn assurance of France, Great Britain and President Wilson that the peace would be a peace of right and not of violence, have not been kept, especially regarding territorial questions."

NORTH FAYSTON

The body of William Carey was taken to Waterbury Sunday for burial. The funeral services were also held at the Catholic church in Waterbury at 2:30 in the afternoon. The bearers were Clinton Morse, Thomas Kelly, Thomas Reynolds and George Jackson. Mr. Carey was in poor health for some time, mostly from old age. If he had lived until September, he would have been 80 years old. He passed away Thursday morning at his home. Mr. Carey had lived in this town over 40 years. He is survived by his wife and seven children—James of New York, Edward of Greenfield, Mass., Henry of Springfield, Mass., John and George of Fayston, also two daughters, Mrs. Bohannon of South Royalton and Mrs. McAllister of Waitsfield. Mrs. Carey and family have the sympathy of the community.

Fayston has gone over the top again in its fifth Liberty loan, and the town has received the fifth Liberty loan drive flag from the government, which is to be hung in the schoolhouse. The quota for Fayston was $8,875.

Memorial services were held at the schoolhouse Sunday. The room was beautifully trimmed with flowers, ferns and flags. There was also a large assembly of people, among them being Miss Gladys Kirkness of Montreal, who sang a solo, accompanied by Rev. Allen Kirkness. Several other selections were also rendered.

Mrs. Estella Boyce returned to her home Thursday from a two weeks' vacation.

Alex Anderson of Barre was in town Monday to lay a foundation in the cemetery for a monument to be placed in Charlie Nelson's lot.

V. D. Griffith of Waitsfield was in town Saturday.

Harry Wheeler of Moretown visited at the home of his uncles over Sunday.

Will Nelson, wife and son, Henry, were in Montpelier Friday.

A lively runaway was witnessed Sunday afternoon. As Charles Maxham was coming down Will Bennett's hill, something broke and let the crossbar onto the horse's heels. Mr. Maxham held on as long as he was allowed to ride, but the wagon took a notion to tip over, throwing Mr. Maxham over the fence. The horse, freeing himself from the wagon, took one thill and crossbar along, leaving Mr. Maxham and a wrecked wagon behind. After a while, the horse was headed off and caught in Will Nelson's barnyard. Mr. Maxham was uninjured and there were only slight scratches on one leg of the horse.

George Wallace of Waitsfield was in town Monday.

UNIFORMITY

Every gallon and drop of So-CO-ny Gasoline is uniform. The motor equals today's satisfactory performance every day. No "ups and downs"—but continuous unvarying, top-notch power.

So-CO-ny requires but one carburetor adjustment because it is uniform. It burns clean and doesn't carbonize cylinders.

Inferior, low-grade mixtures burn fast, produce less power, and more carbon.

Know what goes into the tank. Use So-CO-ny and be safe. You can get it wherever the Red, White and Blue So-CO-ny Sign appears.
